any more than it is a Falstaff or Budweiser or anything else. If Coors does come in and if this passes, they can follow the law like everybody else.

PRESIDENT: Senator Cope.

SENATOR COPE: Mr. President and members, I would support Senator Koch, not especially because of what we are talking about now but eliminating competition and that's exactly what this would be doing. And I don't think we want to do that in this state or anywhere else. So I would support bringing back this bill.

PRESIDENT: Senator Koch would you close debate on your motion?

SENATOR KOCH: Mr. President, I'll be brief. It's apparent that the die has been cast as most everything else has the last few days and it's almost futile. But before I close I am going to ask Senator Nichols a couple of questions because this is really his bill. Senator Nichols, is not this your bill and you have on general file that has this basic material in here?

SENATOR NICHOL: Senator Koch, to be technically correct, I have a grain bill for the Farm Bureau that's my preferred bill. I had a bill and I don't remember the name but it had the content of what we are talking about now earlier so the answer I think that you want is yes. But that isn't the number.

SENATOR KOCH: Well I know it's not the number but I just know that you do have a bill and has basically the same content. What we are doing is we are expediting this because, and I'll ask you another question. Do you...

SENATOR NICHOL: Excuse me, let me correct myself. Yes, 204 was originally my bill, that's right. 204 in it's original content was my bill. I must correct myself. I'm sorry.

SENATOR KOCH: Now one last question. We have thrown the name Coors around here so I am going to put it flat out.

SENATOR NICHOL: Yes sir?

SENATOR KOCH: Is it true that Coors is coming into this state and they will be here by August?

SENATOR NICHOL: I don't know that.

SENATOR KOCH: You know nothing about it?

SENATOR NICHOL: I don't know if they are coming in August or not.

SENATOR KOCH: Well the fact is they are going to be here and they are going to be here with or without this bill.

SENATOR NICHOL: Let me just say what Mr. Tews said.
